Delight the Gentler Sex.

Quarter-Inch Hems the Correct Styles in Handkerchief .- Trimming for Light Green or

Old Rose Colored Hate.

A handkerchief with a quarter-inch hem time of it in private as well as public life.

Her maids-in-walting follow her about the

The Mercantile Register for Business Refer compiled. In it are included properly classi-jobbers and wholesalers of the United States with special departments devoted to banking tosurance, legal, realty, newspaper and hotel

DON CIOVANNI

One of the best and most interesting per performance last Friday in "L'Africaine."

Another Point of View.

Milo - What symmetry! What beauty! What an ideal of loveliness!

Miss Bacon (Chicago)—And how sad to think that she should have to be a Dago!

[from Texas Stiffings.] Intruder-I would like to show you thi

Editor-I don't want to see it. I know al-ready what's owed to Winter. It's a plumber's

(From Judge.)
Stranger—You advertised a spiritualisti seance here to-night, but the house is dark.

Manager-Yes; the medium failed to mate

Ode to Winter."

[From Pack.]
Miss Athenia Hubbs (before the Venus of the correct style for men and women.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 19.

(Including Postage):

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE—1267 REGARMAT-between 21st and 22d sta., New York. BROOKLYN-309 WARHINGTON ST. HARLEM— New Department, 150 East 125TWST. Adver-tisements at 237 East 115TWST. Adver-tisements at 237 East 115TWST. PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDGER BUILDING, 112 SOUTH 6TWST. WASHINGTON—610 14TWST. LONDON OFFICE-52 COCKSPUR ST., TRAVAL

The Evening World Prints Assoclated Press Nows.

A Gain of 36,213

from the books of THE WORLD and are SUBJECT TO ANY TEST or comparison to which esteemed contemporaries may be pleased to subject them:

Total number of WGRLDS printed bond fide ouring December, 1800 .... 9,208,780 Total number of WORLDS printed bong fide

1867 December. 10,331,420

Total gain for 1891.... 1,122,640

AVERAGE PER DAY FOR DECEMBER, 1800.

AVERAGE IER DAY FOR DECEMBER, 1891. 333,271.

AVERAGE CAIN PER DAY FOR 1891. 36,213.

INCREASE IN

ADVERTISING.

ter, 1890 52,659 December, 1891 59.014

A Gain of

6,355

Advertisements.

hold itself responsible for the return or note.

beggar has begun to take up extraordinary methods, or a new and especially danger. manifest its presence among us. Inwhich, in place of the old, meek requests or to relieve the pangs of a fellow-creature who has "eaten nothing for two Waicet made a great hit as an uncouth farm days," have come demands threateningly servant. The others did fairly well. uttered and occasionally accompanied by a demonstration of force. Such a case is reported among last night's events, when a beggar who asked all that is dainty, reflued, poetic and worthy. a young girl for money in Park Row fol. It is a privilege to sit through any performlowed up his demand by seizing the girl sace at this house. by the arm. A policeman was fortunately near and the ruffian was premptly secured. In another instance, also of last night, a male pedestrian was approached by two violent beggars. Begging, always an offense and yet sometimes of such sort that one hesitates to secure the punishment of the offender, comes when accompanied by violence pretty close to the line of highway robbery. There is a call for heroic readily accepted. treatment on the part of citizens, the police and the courts to promptly stamp out this new menace from the city streets

Certain gentlemen connected with the original drafting of the present "secret" Electrocution Law of the State have, as a Revision Committee, very naturally reported to the State Senate in favor of retaining the press-gag provision of that paper muzzling.

New is the heart of the Princeton Stokes. Princeton College boys have set out to quietly; "Mr. establish an eating club and carry on treduction was made, the bartender turned their own boar ling-house on a large scale. The plaint of the students is that they have not bitherto got their money's worth of daily bread and butter. If this be true, the landladies had long ago, in their own reckless hands, just the ounce of prevention needed for the ills now threatening them

Wrestler Mulpoon is out for a National school of athletics, and, it is said, will get a bill introduced into Congress providing for such an institution. It seems hardly UNDER HAPPY RULE, THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR. SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES. CHANGES AT THE THEATRES. ests are already so broadly National that they will assure their own future and the Mr. Mulnoon thinks yould be proper.

The Police Commissioners mean to be kindly considerate Because a fair Har-ELESCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD lem girl is heart-smitten over an uptown roundsman who is already married they transfer the officer to another precinct far away. But, ah me! There are pretty $3.50 girls all over town, and where shall such a figure of a roundsman be safe?

An eleven year old boy attempted suicide by jumping into the North River Intered at the Post-Office at New York as second last night. It is too much to hope that his cold plungs will have any effect on the taste for cigarettes and dime novels to which his state of mind is attributed.

> to recognize the various customs of our mixed topulation. They should be drawn with a liberal consideration for the conditrops of the time and the people.

A man in an almshouse near Wilkes barre is still in a sleep which has already lasted thirteen months. He is losing a good deal of time, but at least he is safe from the Chilian war spirit.

"SQUIRE KATE

There must be pretry in pudding, for Robert Buchanan, who is something of a poet, made the heroine of his play, "Squire Kare," first apparent as a pudding-maker. There she stood, with dainty sleeves unturned. kneading the ingredients, while around her was a pretty rural Ettchen-one of those emanate odors of burning fat or overboiled milk. Robert Buchanan made "Squire Kate" from the French "La Fermiere," and it was produced for the first time anywhere at the sisterly affection, "(wo roses in the light.) Then we learned that Kate loved George tenthcott, and that theoree Heathcott loved wealth to Kuie, and George Heathcort's salary longed for her as a daughter-in-raw-So be made up his mind to arrange things, to leve with her; gave ner a ring with tion. George's love, and made the unfortunate main n very happy. A few minutes later treats her heavery unsisterly manner, and least the support of the angles of the support of the suppor altar of cororal duty.

The play up to this point has been very deligatful than the scene with the havagainst a lovely Lyceum sky? But in the peace rate this naturalness, this touching rurality, the old chestnorty villain appears in the shape of a pot-oner. George's father found that the will not have to go around to his mother's for signally as the hay into the wagon in the preceding act. The play misses its object nding is also awfully tome. Kate, in spite of her excess of virago-ism, gives George to her sister and also her fortune. And—for the sale of that portion of the audience who like will be made to this rule with regard to either ietters or inclosures. Nor will the editor enter they go nome—it is intimated that have into correspondence concerning unavailable before they go nome—it is intimated that have will at some future date marry Geoffrey that correspondence concerning unavailable before they go nome—it is intimated that have will at some future date marry Geoffrey that have the overse-or, who has loved her seep future that makes the overse-or, who has loved her seep future that makes home bright and comfortable ratinents for no less that it is attention to these every, and a happy home is the best evidence that a non-band wardrobe.

BEGGARS TURNING TO HIGHWAYMEN. How if thinks be a condition to the condition that in every trouble him with little cares and well-lare. I never trouble him with little cares and well

Miss Georgia Cayvan played the leading role charmingly in the earlier part of the ous class of mendicants has begun to Play. In her melodramatic scene, although she showed unexpected force, it was not con stances are increasing in number in rather than or the actress. Miss Kille Shanvincing. It was the force of the elecutionist non was pretty and interesting throughout. for a penny towards "a night's lodging" Herter: Kelcey, who looked worse than Socialist, played discreetly, and Mrs. Charles

" Squire Kate " was most artistically presented. At no theatre in New York are plays

The death of Sculptor Randolph Rogers in tope the other day reminds me of the story of his start in life. It is said that as a boy he was employed by a Broadway slik merchant, the make-up of a husband you should be very and during his letsure hours devoted blusself careful how you manage. Unless you are an leased his employer that he offered to lend band is of the kind named above and sus-law.: This report, however, should hardly the bar of one of his downtown cafes when stand in the way of an intelligent and gentleman ordered a whiskey sour. After it rational treatment of the matter by the of a gin fizz. The tartender, a new hand, Legislature. Such treatment would, of laid the sour one side and concected course, involve the prompt wiping out of the fire. "Throw that away," said the unconstitutional attempt at news. Stokes pointing to the sour. "I know my business," was the bartender's tart reply "I tell you to throw that away." Insisted " What you say don't go," was the boarding mistress disconsolate, for the surly reply. "Doesn't it?" asked Stoke several colors and threw away the sour.

The Weakness

And prostration, like that tired feeling, so sure to fellow the Grip, is really the most danger ous stage of the disease and can only be over come by taking a good tonic medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla

Which builds up the whole system, purifies the Necessarily Henpecked.

Women Tell of Households Lovingly Controlled.

Evening World" Women Readers Reveal Administrative Secrets.

The tenor of the letters published in these dumns is to show that American households arms, can improve the appearance of the lovalty, devotion, lovableness of American wives shine from their written pages with a Our Excise laws should be so framed as glow that warms the cockles of the human neart and stimulates one's faith in the race. Letters come to the editor by hundreds All will be considered in awarding the prize though necessarily but few can be printed. The contest is governed by the following: CONDITIONS.

> must be contained in two hundred scords. writer's name and address (not necessarily for publications, and be directed to HUSBAND EDITOR, EVANING WORLD, PULITZER BUILDING.

> > Never Kick.

let him do as he likes and never kick.

To the Editor

Endeavor patiently and lovingly to under stand him in every phase of his existence then do to him exactly as you would have him do to you under the same circumstances. It began as a charming little pastoral drama, showing as Kate and Hetty Thorpe in difference between your dispositions.

and self-controlled so can she manage her them has the bravery to speak above a whis-hasband. Self-discipline is generally the unknown quantity in households where the hos-tand is not managed to the wife's attisfac-tion. Mrs. F. J. L., Summit, N. J.

Let Him Smoke.

bonnet. Be as willing to accompany him to dineatre or places of amusciment as you were ing. Facts is celebrated for dolls and mechanic do not upbroid him. Remember ever that he is ousy with head and hands while you are at home testing. Lizzus.

| 132,000 people live in Thuringia by toy making factor of the second statement of the second sta

Don't Grab His Salary.

into wretched trash, unworthy of the Lyceum be able to keep it. You should be just as Theatre. It becomes not simply a bad play, affectionate as you were before marriage, but a very studd one. After all this poetry, My husband shall always be my lover.

a potenter. George's father found that the confort.

Above all, do not make him lay down his sindes trim up prettily with bluck ostrich poison lietty. We have a long talk about the toxicotogical, value of beliadonna. The father induces fletty to drink some poisoned milk. She drinks it, is ill, and in the next net provers.

Why this perfectly idiotic inclient was introduced into the play it is impossible to surmise. It ruins everything—the artistic value of "Squire Kate" is tossed to the winds as signally as the hay into the wagon in the

I don't try to manage my husband at all. I think it is he who manages me. I will write Virtues." "Woman as the Spirit of C the way I treat him and your readers will then," and "Woman's Place in History. judge for themselves.

I try to show him that in everything my

BEGGARS TURNING TO HIGHWAYMEN. | tion of things been vice-versa-ed, it might | Thinks Some Husbands Are Fools.

Love, truth and common sense are the ence, the New York publication office of which reessary qualifications for both wife and is in the Pulitzer Building, is now ready for husband to possess. With these a cheerful 1802. The Register is complete and carefully home is well-founded. To the husband lack-ing the above good qualifies management is of no avail, as he will always be what he is—a hool. Mrs. M. H. fled lists by cities of the merchants, manufacturers, agents, brokers, exporters, importers,

By Mutual Concession.

The man who has to be "managed" by the interests. It is a valuable aid to a business woman he has promised to love and cherish is man. not worthy the usme of husband. A husband ishould be able to manage himself and sented. At no theatre in New York are plays so perfectly staged and stage-managed. The Lyceum is a beautiful theatrical instance of all that is dainty, refined, poetle and worthy. It is a privilege to sit through any performance at this house.

ALAN DAIR.

HE CLEANER

band ishould be able to manage nimself and family (and a trul) happy man and wife are they who consult one another, give in to one another in the trials, large and simil, which trouble all in this life.

Without harmony and self-sacrince on both sides there cannot be love or happiness. I do not "manage" my husband; we concede to one another.

TRUTH, Patchoque, I. 1.

For a Mulish Husband.

Tathe Pol earying. A miniature bust of fiyron so expert pray don't attempt it, for if your husband is of the kind named above and susfracilly accepted.

Wandering into the Court of General Sessions yesterday I saw a military-tooking manbeside dudge Cowing, who listened intentity to the proceedings. He was Col. Raiph
Vivian, the newly wedded husband of Mrs.

Marshall O. Roberts.

Looking at Ed Stokes yesterday, as he was testifying in his suit against Mackay, a little incident which I witnessed some time ago recalled itself to me. Stokes was standing near the bar of one of his downlown cafes when a
the bar of one of his downlown cafes when a tentilly accepted.

Dand is of the kind named above and suss,
I you have a good true man, with brains, bettle studge Cowing, who listened intentily
to the proceedings. He was Col. Raiph
Vivian, the newly wedded husband of Mrs.
Marshall O. Roberts.

Livia all over with you, You might as well live in such a land te him go until he ided than to stand alone and kick.

If you have a good, true man, with brains, being managed. The thought of how you shall manage such a man will not enter your head.

(live him the weit the between the him alone; tell uim your little troubles, invite his confidence in read.

If this fails of producing a happy husband the trouble is with the patient, not the remedy.

Expense. Elvira and Zerlina respectively. The public

Here is the whole

You get the profit every time you buy a package.

without such Government paternalism as Well Managed Husbands Not Fads, Fancies and Fashions That Is Peter Maher Travelling on a "The Queen's Mate" at the "Bluff" Reputation ?

> Sleeves to Improve Tain Arms - Preparing for the Forty-seventh Modjeska as "Countess Roudine"-Re ment Games in Brooklyn.

the Irish pugilist, has been drawing upon the stock rather generously of late. Billy Madden brought Peter Maher over here from Ireland stand that the Irishman would astonish them sleeves of a dress a thin woman, with long bouts with men not in his class, there has been a lot of jabber about matching him against some of the Up-toppers, which, it is now suspected, was indulged in for advertising purposes. Maher had a chance at Joe Choynski, but the match wasn't made. Apsatisfied to continue exhibiting him before he public on his " newspaper" reputation. but Madden has not given him a fair chance. Madden was cornered on Friday by Capt.

Williams he agreed to let Maher fight Joe Cheynski if Tony Sage said "yes." Tony said:
"I am willing if Madden is." Madden did not come out boidly and say "I am not willing."
but is believed by Arthur Lunley and Capt.
Williams to have cabled Sage to refuse a match with Choynski. Tony promptly took back what he had said.

"Natural Gas." a somewhat upromious fare-connected on the Grand Opera-House last night, and one to which they appeared to take very kindly. There have been many worse farce-connectes than this, which aims it telling the story of a certain liliterate liftsuwoman suddenly raised to wealth and lifts

back what he had said.

Madden knows that his cake would be dough if Choynski should happen to beat his man, and he is not dead sure that Maher could whip Choynski. He knows that Maher really has very little reputation; that he is not an undefeated man; that the tip-toppers will not descend from their supposed lofty positions in the pugilistic world to fight a detact or an unknown man; and he knows also that so long as his man doesn't fight any-In direct proportion as the wife is tactful costle like so many per kittens and not one of body he won't get whipped. He knows, too, the big fellows without being called, and that by so doing he can get advertising. He is handling Maher for the money there is in it. formany is, there is a toy factory in Sliesia and examined with the state of a densely wooded situated in the midst of a densely wooded play out before long. Bluffs have ceased to the first of the peasants there devote have any virtue. The only thing that will territory, and all the peasants there devote have any virtue. The only thing that will satisfy the sport-loving public now is fight.

have any virtue. The only thing that will satisfy the sport-loving public now is fight.

Gus Pererelly, of the Williamsburg A. A., and W. H. Cooper, Company F. A. A. of the Forty-seventh Regiment, are hard at work preparing for the Joint games to be given at the Forty-seventh Regiment Armory on Feb. S. The events are as follows:

Seventy-live yards dash, handicap; three hundred yards run, handicap; running hob, step and jump, handicap; running high jump, for novices, scratch; sik hundred yards run, handicap; running high jump, for novices, scratch; one thobasand yards run, handicap; running high jump, for novices, scratch; one thobasand yards run, handicap; running high jump, for novices, seratch; one thobasand yards run, handicap; one and one-half mile safety bicycle race, handicap.

"It looks very much now as if these games would be the best the Williamsburgs have ever had anything to do with," said President Pevereily last hight. "The entries are coming in rapialy and many of the best at thetes of the metropolitan district are among them. We have arranged it so that all who contemplate participating in the games can practibe in the armory by securing a competitors' ticket. The cyclists can use the armory Tuesday and Thursons vernings, and the athletos on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and saturday nights. Every thing is being done to make these games a success."

Herr Kaniz appeared in a new form—very spick and span—and proved to be a very good and the performance apparently interest and the transformations Nowere et a very bewildering nature. "The Week's business at Mr. Murtha's house." The list Theater last night at H. R. Jacobs' Theatre by W. H. Trowers Company. It is an old favorite, and assuch does not call in the fair optical to the first the list of the provision on the wise of the play to the play ton the play to the London and Birmingham. Ohrdruff exports porcelain toys, and many plaster toys come Among the new garter buckles there are designs in blackened wrought iron set with

Light green telt hats and bright old rose

The Standard Athletic Club, of Greenpoint, is doing considerable work in general athletic just now, and it expects to put several good men in the indoor games of the Long Island Amateur Athletic League next month and those of the Metropolitan Association on Jan. 23. both in her own city and in the East, and is groups she has designed are: "Woman's Virtues," "Woman as the Spirit of Civiliza-

The coming stag of the Wayne Athletic Club on Jan. 25 is attracting considerable at-tention among the amateur fighters. Several good specials have been arranged for bouts between the representatives of some of the best boxing clubs.

Jack Lyman, the well known 110-pound righter who is soon to meet Jack Sullivan, left for Far Rockaway this morning with his trainer. Jack Tooley, and his manager, W. C. Sullivan. Lyman will train hard for this bout, as he says he is not going to run any unnecessary chances.

The bout between Mike Brock, of the West Sides, and Joe Shortell, of the Nonparells, at the Titan A. C. stag on Jan. 30 will be a very warm one, as both of the men are auxious to decide the question of superiority.

When Dick Roche refused to come up as usual and back Jack McAuliffe against Billy Myer it sent another good match on the wrong road. A go between McAuliffe and Myer would have been an interesting WORLDLINGS.

formances of the operatic season was given at The Russian Crar has an income of $25,000 a the Meteopolitan Opera-House last night

States in twenty years, 65 per cent, were granted to wives on their petitions for a dissolution of the > VACRANT VERSES How I Save Myself.

tire of my cigar, of my books and of the

And sigh for golden moments now forever passed When I feel that single blessedness is not man's The other roles were intrusted to Paul Then I simply call on Brown-with his family of salisch. Sig. Carbone, Sig. Serbolini and Kalisch, Sig. Carbone, Sig. Serbolini and Edouard de Reszke. De Reszke had shaken off his iethargy, and his performance was un And I fear that if I linger I might be compelled to Then to strengthen my resolve, and to steel my ar-I just make a call on Brown-with his family of egght.

- Brooklyn Life.

> The Ruling Passion. The Ruling
>
> Dramatic aspirations filled him,
> In being stage-struck be took pride
> At last a hus ran o er and killed him—
>
> At last a hus ran o er and killed him—
>
> Rider and Driver,

Harlem Opera-House.

Other New Bills.

Talk is about the cheapest thing in the NIBLO'S. market, and the management of Peter Maher. " Evangeline" the good old burlesque that people always seem to want to see, began a week's engagement at Niblo's Garden las night. It may best be described as a happy sary to describe it at all, at this very ad with his prowess. The public has been as-tonished all right enough, but not by Mr. Moffit, who created the part many years ago, Maher's pro wess. His fistic ability, so far as appeared as the Lone Fisherman, and the cast the public has been able to judge, tsn't in it also included Hilda Thomas, Ruth Davenwith Mr. Madden's lingual tactics. While port, Richard Harlow, Estelle Clinton, and Maher has been allowed to go on in sparring George A. Schiller. HARLEN OPERA-HOUSE.

tion last night at Hammerstein's Harlem Opera-House. The opera was " The Queen's Mate," that enjoyed a run some seasons ago parently Madden is either afraid to let his man have a go at a good fighter or else he is The organization at present includes Helen Bertram, who has a very pretty voice; Bet-Whether Maher is a first grade man or not s a question. He has shown some ability, GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

COLUMBUS THEATRE.

Evans and Hoey were the stars at Hammer-stein's Columbus Theatre last night. It is somewhat needless to say that they presented "A Parior Match." The comedians can scarcely be blamed for adhering to this time-worn farce-comedy, for the public gives them every encouragement to keep it green. The play was well staged and caused a good deal of laughter. The three Levey sisters are still members of this organization, and seem to have become popular.

Maggie Cline sang a new song at Tony Pastor's Theatre Last night. It was called "My First Appearance on the Stage." It created a good deal of laughter, as Marguerite interpreted it in her own peculiar style. Among the other attractions were Tony Pastor, Lyda Yeamans, the dancing singing and acrobatic Adonis Four. Edwin French, the Judges, Mouroe and Mack, Shedman's does and monkeys, Bobby and Kitty Emmet, Till's pantoccial and Miss Alberta Gilbert, a "vocalist and change artiste."

At Koster A Bial's Concert Hall last night there was an interesting programme, the principal features of which were Kate Harvey, who "reappeared;" the burnesque "Joan of Are;" Cailo and Loreno, the humanorma ages.

Shintaro's Imperial Japs were the main attraction at Huber's Palace Museum, in East Fourteenth street, yesterday. The other attractions were the Clairo Sisters, Baggessen, the contortionist; Little bot and her rattle-snakes; Amelia Hill, the fat midget; Miss Wray and her trained birds; Manie Clayton, Queen May, Prof. Chamberlin, "the embroidery king;" George, the turtle boy; a Congo Princess and Prof. Barton's shadowgraphs, On the stage a very good variety performance was given.

DORIS'S MUSEUM.

DORIS'S MUSEUM. when Morart's masterplece, "Don Glovanni," was presented. Every effort was made to render the interpretation a worthy one, for it is a well-known tact that "Don Glovanni," and off one sweet potato, which weighed nearly ten pounds, and of which there was a respectable remaint after everybody's appetite had been the principal reason why it is so seldom heard.

The cast last night was thoroughly excellent, with Lill Lebmann, Albant and Marie Van Zandt in eager vocal rivalry as Anna,
Elvira and Zerlina respectively. The public

Elvira and Zerlina respectively. The public

Elvira and Zerlina respectively. The public

Prooklyn Theatres COL. SINN'S NEW PARE THEATRE.

"Standing room only" was displayed in the lobby of the Park Theatre last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Kendal reappeared and were given a warm welcome. Tom Taylors "Still Waters Run Deep" was the play selected, and both the leading roles were interpreted in an effective manner. The company includes J. E. Dodson, Mr. Bucklaw and Yiolet Page. Tonight "The Weaker Sex " will be given. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

J. K. Emmet, son of the original "Fritz, made his first appearance in Brooklyn lass night. He filled the principal role in "Fritz in Ireland," a character which his father made familiar to all theatre-goers. Young Emmet gave a fairly good performance. THE AMPHION. "Mr. Barnes of New York" has evidently lost none of its powers of attraction, if the audience that gathered at the Amphion last night counts for anything. The play abounds in thrilling situations and delightful comedy. Hugo Toland, Sheridan Black, Frazer Coulter, and the Misses Merton, Field, Snyder and Bartel were in the cast.

REDFORD AVENUE TREATRE. Neilie McHenry and her company of come-dians received a warm welcome last night at the Bedford Avenue Theatre. "A Night at the Circus" was the medium through which the circus" was the medium through which the cleverness of herself and her associates was shown. Miss McHenry is sprightly and vivacious, and duplicated the hit she made in the Western District.

ROYAL is the only Baking Powder Absolutely Pure.

FUXedo," a combination of minstrelsy and farce-comedy, was presented at the Lee Avenue Academy last night. The company is headed by fronge Thatcher. The hit of the evening was made by R. J. Jose, whose sweet voice won much applause. H. W. Frillman, Raymon Yoore, Hughey Dougherry, Burt Sheppard, Blanche Hayden and the other members of the company were well received.

HOLMES'S STAR THEATRE. BOLMES'S STAR THEATHE.

Birds of a Feather," which was successful at the Bedford Avenue Theatre, was presented before a good-sized audience last night at Holmes's Star Theatre. The play is full of excitement and also possesses some amusing incidents. Charles Bowser fills the leading

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR

The general fund of Cigar-Makers' Union No. 10 ontains at present $5,239. The New York Workingmen's State Trades Assembly convened at Albary this morning.

The newly elected Secretary of Tallors' Progressive Union No. 11 is J. Goldberger, 123 Cannon street.

street.

Local Union 497, carpenters and joiners, is making arrangements for an evening entertainment to be held on Feb. 27.

In the State of New York the corporations pay less than 15 percent, of the taxes, sithough they own over 70 percent, of the wealth of the State.

Malisters' Union No. 68 elects Martin Hinz, President; Charles Zuckowitch, Corresponding Secretary; Charles Tinkenauer, Financial Socretary, Jacob Stein, Tressurer,

The question "Why do we organize?" will be discussed at an agitation meeting of Local Union No. 2, United Machinists, on Jan. 25.

Mass-meeting of waters and hartenders at Clar-

Mass meeting of waiters and hattenders at Clar-ndon Hall this evening. Speeche will be made a English, German and French by some of the elegates to the National Convention.

The Liberty Musical Union of Brooklyn has vol-untered to give an orchestra of thirty pieces for the concert to be arranged for the benefit of the striking printers of Germany at the Brooklyn Labor Lycoum on Feb. 7.

Michael Stroh, one of the waiters who were sent to Sing Sing for boycotting teorge Theiss, died last Sunday. The funeral will take place from the deceased's residence, 1974 Amsterdam avenue, to-morrow, 1 F. M. to Woodlawn Cemetry.

vey, who "reappeared;" the buriesque "Joan of Arc; Caia and Loreno, the humorous aero-bats; Louis and Mamie Jordan, the mid-air performers; and the Tyrolean quartet. Next Monday, Carmencita, the unrivalled Spanish dancer; will return to this house, where she has been sadly missed. The "road," while appreciative, has not treated her as well as did New York.

Shintaro's Imperial Japs were the main attraction at Hubber's Palace Museum, in East Fourteenth street, yesterday. The other attractions were the Claire Sisters, Baggessen, the contortionist; Little Dot and her rattle, the contortionist; Little Dot and her rattle, Thousands are unemployed in Madrid, the city houses, but also discontinued dispensing meat to the immates of hespitals, prisons and the poor-house; and yet it is proposed to build a municipal theatre at a cost of $1,000,000.

The House-Painters' Union had a discussion last night upon the question of amalgamating the dif-ferent painters' unions in this city and dividing them into branches according to the location of second in the resolved to instruct the Eight-Hour-ter. It was resolved to instruct the Eight-Hour-vantages or disadant statement showing the ai-vantages or disadants were $50.30.

At its next regular meeting Carpenters' Union No. 513, will discuss the question whether or not the Socialistic Co-operative Publishing Association should be requested to so change their constitution that members of all bons-rids trades union a may be admitted to membership in the Association. Hitherto only members of the Socialist Labor party have been admitted to the Association. A rote will also be taxen upon the amendments to the constitution of Union No. 513. constitution of Union No. 513.

The ticket-choppers and ticket agents of the Kings County Elevated road have effected a secret organization for the purpose of ousting the women who are supplyed as ticket/agents by that company. The men say that when the road was opened they were promised higher wages as soon as the condition of travel would warrant an advance, but instead of keeping their promise the County employed women and proposes now to reduce any employed of the men to the standard of the women's wages.

IS THE TIME TO BUY

WEBER

108 FIFTH Ave., cor. West 16th St.,

FREE! SPECIAL!

Woven Wire Springs - - $2.10 Hair Mattresses - - - 8.75

SOMETBING WENT THROUGH HIM

AS SHARP AS RAZORS. Frederick Kunst Tells a Reporter Hor

He Suffered from His Heart, Headaches and Dissiness, and Hose Doctors

McCoy and Wildman Cured Him.

PREDERICK E. KUNST.

DOCTORS McCOY & WILDMAN OFFICES, 5 EAST 420 STREET, NEW YORK, AND 187 MONTAGUE STREET, SHOWLYN, where all ourable cases are treated with success
If you live at a distance write for a symptom bland
CONSULTATION AT OFFICE OR SY MAIL FREE
Address all mail to 5 East 42d street. Office hours—9 to 11 A, M, 2 to 4 P, M, 7 to 9 P, M Sundays, 9 to 12 A, M.

Wanted the Best.

uail was hung a little too long, sah. Mr. Wedderfield—Hung! Why, you black Stating His Wishes.

ing?" said old Mr. Scadds, as young Dolley " I want your consent to our engagement. sir," replied Dolley. "Your daughter and I love each other and want to marry."
"Indeed!" snorted the father. "Anything else?"
"Well, sir, I might mention before I gothat Austin Corbin gave his daughter five million dollars as a wedding present."

"What's that pencil for?" inquired Mrs sharpe of her daughter. "For penciling eyebrows," responded the " Well, what do you want to use one for?"
"To draw."
" Iraw what?"
" Draw a beau."

Literary Note. Friend-How about your poem, Charleygetting on with it?

-house cleaning without Pearline. There is twice as much work as there need be -half as much comfort as there might be. Pearline washes and cleans everything safely, saving time and saving work. Nothing starts dirt so easily; nothing takes it out so thoroughly. Cleaning house without Pearline makes a great "to-do;" cleaning with it gives you little to do. Beware of imitations. 294 JAMES PYLE, M. Y.

Times

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE.

TTENTION, ECONOMICAL BUYERS. We shall offer at special rates large lines of all kinds of furniture, compris-ing patterns which we have stopped manufacturing; also articles which, owing to the rapid changes in the styles, have become somewhat out of fashion. These goods MUST be sold, and we shall mark them at such extraordinary low figures as shall make them sell.

Also numerous odd, unmatched pieces such as Bedsteads, Bureaus, Eusy Chairs, Louages, Chiffouniers, Dining Chairs, Extension Tables, &c., &c. The workmanship and quality of the oods are warranted in every respect BUY OF THE MAKER.

CEO. C. FLINT CO.,

FURNITURE MAKERS. 104, 106 AND 108 WEST 14TH ST-

JOHN WILLIAMS

Pactory, 184 and 186 West 19th st.

186, 188 & 140 WEST 23D ST.